1. Tech Lead Full-Stack Rails Engineer (Mitre Media)

 Why it matches:

Your full-stack experience – using JavaScript, building REST APIs, and working with SQL databases – directly aligns with the core technical needs of a Tech Lead in a Rails environment. Familiarity with React and modern front-end tooling positions you to quickly adapt to the team's JavaScript/React use cases and mentor others in client-side development. This role offers a great growth opportunity to expand into Ruby on Rails and AI integration while using your existing skills to drive impact in FinTech.

2. Senior Full-stack React Developer (Lemon.io) Why it matches:

Your solid experience in React, Node.js, and full-stack JavaScript, plus SQL/MySQL and REST API development, directly matches the core tech stack required for Lemon.io's Senior Full-Stack React role. This position lets you apply a complete front-to-back skill set—ideal for a developer wanting to work on end-to-end projects while continuing to grow your senior-level expertise.
